

Central Appalachian Family Farm Fund – Flood Relief Application

A partnership comprised of the Appalachian Impact Fund, the Foundation for Appalachian Kentucky, and Community Farm Alliance is soliciting applications from family farms to the Central Appalachian Family Farm Fund - Flood Relief. These grants can be used as part of your farm's recovery plan from damages and losses sustained in the flood which occurred across southeastern Kentucky in Summer 2022.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis until funds are exhausted. The first round of applications will be reviewed for applications that are submitted by Sunday, August 21, 2022, at 11:59 p.m. Additional rounds of applications will be reviewed for applications submitted by 11:59 p.m. on Sundays until funds are exhausted. The application should take you approximately 5 to 10 minutes to complete. The information you provide will be kept confidential and not shared for any purposes beyond establishing eligibility and identifying resources that could be useful for your family farm.

Applications will be reviewed by a committee of people involved in agriculture within the region. Applicants must demonstrate a flood impact to their farming operations.

Eligibility criteria:

- Family-owned farms/cooperative farms with no more than 10 employees.
- Priority is on currently working farms which are growing/producing food/edible products.
- The priority is on the counties of Breathitt, Clay, Knott, Letcher, Perry, Floyd, Pike, Owsley, Leslie, Magoffin, Martin, and Whitley, but adjacent counties may qualify as well.
- Damage or loss to farm operations incurred due to heavy rain and flooding on July 28-29, 2022.

Applications can be:

- Completed online at: bit.ly/ekygrantapp
- Faxed to: 606-328-6130
- Scanned/photographed & emailed to: jennifer@cfaky.org
